First Action on the Merits

1. Claims 1-10 of U.S. Application 10/532,228 filed on 04/22/2005 are presented for examination.

Quotations of U.S. Code Title 35

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. The claims and only the claims form the metes and bounds of the invention. "Office personnel are to give claims their broadest reasonable interpretation in light of the supporting disclosure. In re Morris, 127 F.3d 1048, 1054-55, 44 USPQ2d 1023, 1027-28 (Fed. Cir 1997). Limitations appearing in the specification but not recited in the claim are not read into the claim. In re Prater, 415 F.2d 1393, 1404-05, 162 USPQ541, 550-551 (CCPA 1969)" (MPEP p2100-8, c 2, I 45-48; p 2100-9, c 1, I 1-4). The Examiner has full latitude to interpret each claim in the broadest reasonable sense. The Examiner will reference prior art using terminology familiar to one of ordinary skill in the art. Such an approach is broad in concept and can be either explicit or implicit in meaning.

Information Disclosure Statement

4. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 04/22/2005 is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. Claims 1-3 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,618,628 ("Davlin").

Regarding claim 1

Davlin teaches the invention including an electronic device system comprising an electronic device unit being a parent device including a connector for connecting to an external device and a connector for connecting to another electronic device unit, the parent device having a function of transmitting/receiving data to/from the external device, and a plurality of electronic device units being child devices each including two connectors for connecting to other electronic device units, the child devices being connected to the parent device in series for use, wherein said parent device has means for successively generating identification codes for the electronic device units, and the electronic device units have means for automatically setting the successively generated identification codes as own identification codes respectively in the order of series connection beginning from said parent device – see, for example, FIG. 2, FIG. 3, column 2 line 33 to column 3 line 9, and column 4 lines 43-65.

Regarding claim 2

Art Unit: 2121

Davlin teaches wherein each of the plurality of electronic device units has a function of setting the identification code generated by the electronic device unit being said parent device as the own identification code and then reporting that the unit has completed the setting to the electronic device unit connected next (see column 4 lines 10-42).

Regarding claims 3 and 8

Davlin teaches wherein said parent device has means for determining that all of said child devices have completed setting of the identification codes when said parent device issues an identification code setting instruction to said child devices and then receives no answer of setting completion from said child devices within a predetermined period previously set (see column 6 line 58 to column 7 line 20).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 4-7, 9 and 10 are allowed.
7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention, in conjunction with all the other claimed limitations, an electronic device system having all the claimed features of applicant's instant invention, specifically including: recognition means for recognizing itself to be a parent device because none of the electronic device units is connected in front of the unit itself and the other electronic device unit is connected behind the unit itself, or recognizing itself to be a child device because the other electronic device unit is connected in front of the unit itself; means for automatically setting as the own identification code one of the identification codes successively generated from the electronic device unit which has recognized itself to be said parent device, in the order of series connection beginning from the electronic device unit which has recognized itself to be said parent device, when the unit recognizes itself to be a child device by the recognizing means, etc., as set forth in the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
